

What does the A.A. Cleveland District Office do for us?

- Answers telephone calls for:
  - Help for the still suffering alcoholic
  - Locations and times for over 850 A.A. meetings
  - Referral to other 12-Step programs and resources
  - Information on existing area treatment program/facilities
  - Requests for speakers for churches, schools and community, business and judicial organizations
  - Conducts quarterly workshops for home group secretaries and treasurers.
- Operates a comprehensive point-of-sale literature department offering books, pamphlets, commemorative coins, fellowship greeting cards for members, groups, intergroups, correctional facilities and hospitals
- Publishes the monthly Central Bulletin, the oldest continuous AA publication in the world
- Maintains an up-to-date secretary's directory with the input of the fellowship
- Publishes a current Meeting Schedule Book which is updated 3 times each year
- Maintains an interactive website www. aacle.org for its members
- Takes meetings and outreach to area correctional facilities
- Assists members with special needs whenever possible
- Stays faithful to the Seventh Tradition of self-support through our own contributions by conducting its Annual Fund Drive
